

OCONEE COUNTY LIBRARY BOARD MEETING

JANUARY 19, 1982

OCONEE COUNTY LIBRARY

Presiding: Faye Grayson

Attending: Faye Grayson, Joyce Hardigree, Frances Burgess, Roxanna Austin, Caroline McLeroy, Virginia Wells, Diane Wiley, Patti Ivy, Gayle Christopher.

The Winter Quarter Library Board Meeting was held January 19, 1982 at the Oconee County Library with Faye Grayson presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Virginia Wells, Treasurer, reported a balance of $2,150.16. Virginia will check into putting our combined funds into a NOW account and thereby draw interest on the total. Patti Ivy will call ACTION LINE and give the information that we have Oconee County maps available. Frances Burgess reported the Bogart Library was doing well. Gayle Christopher reported that a plant had been sent to Billie Brown's parents in October. The board voted to send a tray of food to Billie due to the death of her father. Also a book will be placed in the library in his memory. Gayle will take care of delivering the food to Billie.

Miss Austin reported as follows:

1. Mrs. Patti Ivy has given a donation for the Ivy Collection in memory of Mrs. Emma Ivy.
2. The new book mobile is in operation. The old one was sold for $1001.00.
3. The Regional Board Meeting will be held Jan. 21.
4. The Royston Library is open. Their new building is very nice.
5. The Christmas activities were very successful. There were films and activities for children at every branch.
6. Miss Austin commended the Oconee County Library for extending their hours to forty a week.

Patti Ivy suggested we remind Choyce Johnson that the insurance on the library carried by the county may cover the insect damage on the redwood.

The terms of Faye Grayson, Mildred Rice, and Caroline McLeroy expired in December 1981. The Board of Education and Board of Commissioners were asked to reappoint these three member for another term. Both Boards complied with this request.

Respectfully Submitted,

Oconee County Library Board Meeting
October 19, 1982
Oconee County Library

Presiding: Faye Grayson
Attending: Frances Burgess, Roxanna Austin, Mildred Rice, Gayle Christopher, Billie Brown, Patti Ivy,
Faye Grayson, Caroline McLeroy.

The Fall Quarter Library Board Meeting was held on Oct. 19, 1982 with Faye Grayson presiding.

Billie Brown reported $235.00 total made ^{from} ~~of~~ the book sale at the Fall Festival. Some of this money was used to purchase Christmas magazines. The copy machine needed repair. The service man recommended repairing and using it rather than obtaining a new one. The Watkinsville Library had 411 readers on the summer program.

Frances Burgess reported a good reading club with 35 children participating. She requested that the lighting fixtures in the Bogart Library be replaced. Frances will check with the Mayor and Council about helping with this and also have Georgia Power recommend what is needed. A change of hours was requested for the Bogart Branch.

Miss Austin reported:

1. The entire system has ^{been} active during the Fall.
2. The Bogart Library has been inventoried by staff from the Regional Library. All the branches will be inventored.
3. In the 1983 state budget, grants to the library systems have been cut. The branches will feel it in a cut in materials.

Watkinsville Library requested a 4,000 card roladix. Also shelving to match existing shelves: five magazine slanting sections, five 10 in. flat shelves, ten 8 in. shelves at a total expense of $475.25. This includes shipping and installation. Bogart requested a paper-back rack to hold 330 books at $90.30. This total expenditure of $565.75 was approved by the board.

Peggy Lowrey requested the use of the library board's map to print in the Oconee Enterprise to show the location of the land fill. This was approved with the proviso that it also tell where the maps can be purchased.

The Nominating Committee, Gayle Christopher, Betty Dawson, Wanda
Langley, presented the following slate of officers:

Chairman: Wanda Langley
Vice Chairman: Gayle Christopher
Secretary: Patti Ivy
Treasurer: Virginia Wells

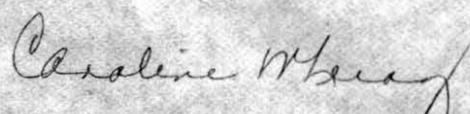

This will be voted on in January.

Gayle Christopher's term expires in December 1982. She will be re-appointed with the approval of the Board of Education and Board of Commissioners.

Tuesday, December 14 is the date of a Christmas Open House to be held at the Watkinsville Library. Billie Brown gave the Board members a special invitation to attend.

Being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Caroline McLeroy, Sec.
